

2026 Corpus Christi 7 Day Film Project Music Release Form

(Submit this form with your film on Wednesday, July 15, 2026. Include a form for every score or song used in your film. If the film uses stock music or royalty free music from a library, staple the license or registration and fill out Section 1.)

By signing this form, you give permission for the filmmakers and CC7D to use the music you wrote, performed, or licensed in their film — and in future events, promotions, and online platforms.

SECTION 1: Music Details

Title of Music Track: _____

Used by Team: _____

☐ Original Music — composed/performed by: _____

☐ Stock Music — from (site/library): _____

Contact Email: _____

If you are the composer, performer, or rights holder, continue below:

SECTION 2: Grant of Rights: For good and valuable consideration, I grant the filmmakers and the Corpus Christi 7 Day Film Project ("Producer") the full right to use, reproduce, edit, and distribute the music listed above, in whole or in part, in any version of the film and in any media — including but not limited to:

- Film festivals and public screenings
- YouTube, Vimeo, or other streaming/video platforms
- Social media, marketing, and promotional campaigns
- Future use by CC7D to promote the event, filmmakers, or community

This permission is granted worldwide, forever, in all media now known or later invented. I understand that my music may be edited or partially used and that credit is not guaranteed but may be included at the filmmakers' discretion.

SECTION 3: Ownership and Indemnification: I confirm that:

- I own or control all rights to the music listed above.
- No other person or company needs to approve its use.
- My contribution does not infringe on anyone else's rights.

agree to hold CC7D and the filmmakers harmless if any claims arise from my music.

SECTION 4: Legal Agreement: This agreement is binding under Texas law. I understand that I won't be paid for the use of this music and that this release is final unless replaced by a signed written amendment.
